Young Rebs To Play Sat Afternoon

It may look like a "ballet session" with the eight year old Dyna-Mites hoofing it on the practice field, but these sturdy players and their older buddies, the 9-10 year old "Mites" and 11-12 year old "T-Rebs" will be on the field Saturday afternoon against Vista Acres. Game times begin at 3:30 p.m. In Monday evening's battles against Brookville the 9-10 year olds defeated the Comets 28-8 but the 11-12's ran into a tough aggregation and stayed on the low side of a 12-0 defeat in the second game. See more action for yourself Saturday afternoon!

HomeComing At Harvey Homestead

"The old stage coach Inn had its sign out –No Vacancy last week end."

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Harvey, Sr. enjoyed an old time homecoming with their families at the century old homestead last week end.

There was ample space in the old farm house, where all the children were born and reared.

Memories of yesteryear came to life as much reminiscing was enjoyed.

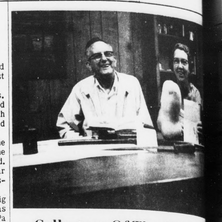
The weather obliged for a big fire in the large fireplace as bedtime stories and GrandPa yarns were spun.

Charlie and wife, Rae and their children, Debbie, Becky and Chuck and Mazie and her girls, Sylvia and Janet arrived Friday. Harriette and husband, Ralph, and boys, Robbie and Tom came Saturday.

The granddaughters put GranMa in her old rocking chair as they took over the kitchen to prepare the Saturday noon time meal of hotdogs and hamburgers, however GranMa was in command Sunday, preparing the favorite dish of each of her children and saying:

"It seems just yesterday, I heard GranMa to my mother say, 'My the children are growing so fast, treasure each moment, make them last, before time carries them into the past, as cherished memories."

The nation's interstate highway system, about two-thirds completed, accounted for 1 per cent of the nation's street and highway mileage last year, but carried almost 18 per cent of the total traffic.



Collectors Of The Old & New

Good weather and harvest time produced this five - pound butternut squash in the John Williams garden in Evergreen, but there are years of "saving" the various Civil War relics the Farrars have of their... Included are a tin powder horn full of 100 year old powder (at far left of desk), a hand made scabbard belonging to an uncle, Baker Pulliam, and a bayonet stick on which is written "Cut in the center of Seven Battlefield where 15,000 soldiers were killed May 8 1864" with a signature, " J. E. Lynd" and parts of other relics covered by heavy varish. The Farrar's son accidentally covered the writing about 1952 while "playing pioneer" with the stick. In an old Bible they have preserved a four leaf clover as well as several four-leaf onesplus a three wing with the "W" mark showing plainly on a wing.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our mother, Mrs. Maude Snupe, who passed away two years ago September 21st.

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you – Oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,

Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of her still as the same, I say:
She is not dead – she is just away,
Sadly Missed by Children. 9-25-1t

IN MEMORY OF THOMAS R. PHELPS

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, who passed away one year ago Oct. 1, 1968.

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is strilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God called him home, it was his will,
But in our hearts we love him still,
His memory is as dear today.
As in the hour he passed away
Sadly missed by wife, daughters and son. 8/25/1p

In memory of my uncle Wiley E. Baldwin, who passed away Sept. 14, 1969.

Once again, the sun has set
On the life of a child of God
But bear in mind, oh troubled heart
He stands where we've never trod!
He lived on this earth for oh so long,
And worked so very hard.
But now his only task
Is servant to our God.
It's true our hearts are aching
And tears so freely flow,
But these things we must remember
As through his life we go.
If we lift up our eyes to Jesus
And join our hearts in prayer
God will surely give us strength
To endure each trying hour.
